CALL FOR PAPERS

Journal of the Assembly for Expanded Perspectives on Learning (JAEPL) solicits submissions for the fourth annual edition. The theme of this issue is Mind, Body, Spirit: Teachers Making Connections.

"There is no mind separate from the body, no god separate from his [sic] creation," Gregory Bateson asserts. Mind and nature form a necessary unity. The theme of Mind, Body, Spirit: Teachers Making Connections invites further speculations on the ways in which mind, body, and spirit form that necessary unity. Possible areas for consideration include:

- writing as healing
- poststructuralist textualities
- ecofeminism
- silence
- ethics
- schema theory as body based

As always, the theme is intended to initiate thinking, not limit it. We urge you to consider the connections in your lives, your teaching, and your writing, and respond to our call for papers.
